
Open circles use the trial radius provisionally. Missing mass/constraint values were not recorded; they are not filled.

Exterior norms use each run's own horizon cutoff. Unequal resolution prevents attributing the error gap to the formulation.